

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, May 14

1998

North Ala. Industrial Development Assoc. Visiting Marshall Thurs.

Members of the North Alabama Industrial Development Association are visiting Marshall Thursday. The 11-member group will be briefed about Marshall programs, including Space-based Laser and Technology Transfer. Visitors will also tour the Space Station Manufacturing & Assembly Facility, Productivity Enhancement Complex and Structural Laboratory.

Emergency Warning System Test 3 p.m., Thurs., Center-wide

Open House Volunteer T-shirts Available in Bldg. 4200, Room 220E

Gov. James To Speak at Luncheon; Reservation Deadline is Thurs.

The Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring an Alabama Update luncheon with Gov. Fob James, noon May 20, at the North Hall of the Von Braun Center. James will present his assessment of the past legislative session and the "state of the state." Tickets are $20 each and reservation deadline is Thursday. Contact: Mary Rutledge, 4-5252

Hubble Telescope's Accomplishments To Air 10:30 p.m. Thurs. on "Nightline"

The television show, Nightline, is planning to air a show tonight on the accomplishments of the Marshall-developed Hubble Space Telescope. Barring other breaking news, the program will air at 10:30 p.m. (CDT) on WAAY-TV, channel 31.